Our History

Dating back to 1616, The Old Gate Inn offers a unique glimpse into the past. As a Grade II* listed building, every corner of this historic pub tells a story. There is a long-standing belief that its beams are salvaged from ships of the Armada. There are two original fire ranges and an oak-panelled haunted room.

Bonnie Prince Charlie and his army billeted at the Inn before retreating from Derby during their invasion of England in December 1745.

Historic England says only 5.8% of all listed buildings are Grade II* buildings. These buildings are particularly important. Experience history and hospitality like never before at The Old Gate Inn.
